Date	Page	Change/Update
7/1	45	Atlantic Dance is now focusing on Latin Dance with live Latin bands, and Latin dance lessons are also offered. No one under the age of 21 is allowed.
7/1	65	The internal bus routes Chip and Dale are gone. Crockett and Boone remain and cover much of the same routes that Chip and Dale ran. Also, fees for horseback riding ($32), nightly pet fee ($5), and electric cart rental ($43/day) have increased (new prices are noted in parenthesis). For more detailed updates, see Jeff Spencer's Fort Wilderness FAQ at http://home.hiwaay.net/~jlsponce/faq_fw.htm
7/1	71	The new pool at the Grand Floridian is now open!
7/1	77	Wyland Galleries now has a shop inside the Polynesian's Great Ceremonial House near the resort's main entrance. The shop offers paintings, sculpture and other fine gifts. The fabulous Naena Volcano pool is now open and packed with happy swimmers. Nanea Pool also has a new pool wheelchair which can be rolled right into the water.
7/1	80	The merger of Port Orleans and Dixie Landings has been completed.
7/1	87	Territory Lounge serves micro-brewed beer, but does not brew them itself.
7/1	93	The Beach Club's bus stop has been relocated to the left, near the word "Parking" at the top center of our resort map.
7/1	96	Disney's Pop Century Resort is now scheduled to open in March 2002.

Date	Page	Change/Update
7/1	98	Another seven-day Disney Cruise Line itinerary has been announced for 2002, featuring stops in Key West, Cozumel and Grand Cayman.
7/1	99	Shore-side food, transportation, and entertainment at all ports-of-call other than Disney's Castaway Cay are at your expense.
7/1	111	Disney also accepts the Discover card.
7/1	112	The January 2001 park admission rate increase was greater than anticipated at press time. With the Four- and Five-Day Park Hoppers, there are no savings over the price of four single-day tickets, but you do save $25 over the price of five single-day tickets. An Annual Pass is $37 cheaper than two Four-Day Park Hopper Passes. The water park Annual Pass is $106.
7/1	113	The Premium Annual Pass now includes admission to DisneyQuest, costs $127 more than a regular Annual Pass, and now costs $21 more than a 12-night (13 day) Ultimate Park Hopper Ticket.

We updated the Pass Comparison Chart to reflect actual 2001 pricing:

Date	Page	Change/Update
7/1	139	Morocco has a new character meet and greet area across from Restaurant Marrakesh, plus new artisans and culture representatives throughout the pavilion.
7/1	140	Cast members still participate in pin trading activities.
7/1	141	In October 2001, the Tapestry of Nations parade will be transformed into the Tapestry of Dreams parade, featuring new characters, new music and a new, "Dreamcatcher" float to lead the parade.
		The Tapestry of Nations parade now consists of two identical mini-parades. The parade section that operated between Morocco and United Kingdom has been eliminated, greatly aiding pedestrian travel between the United Kingdom and France. We don't know whether this section of the parade route will be restored for the Tapestry of Dreams parade. The "double" parade can now only be seen by Germany.
7/1	142	A 122-foot tall Sorcerer Mickey hat located in front of Mann's Chinese Theater is now the new park icon.
7/1	144b	Autograph seekers can meet characters at Character Prop Stop, on New York Street's Washington Square.

Happy Birthday, Walt! - The park has been named the center of the 100 Years of Magic Celebration that starts in October 2001. In October there will be a new parade, "Disney Stars and Motor Cars" and a new attraction, "Walt Disney: On Man's Dream" as part of that celebration. New parades have been announced for all four parks, and electronic kiosks will be available at all parks, offering a glimpse into Walt and Disney history. Special Magical Moments collector's pins will have lights that interact with the parades, kiosks, and attractions.

7/1	168	West Side shopping will soon include "Magical Masters," a magic and illusion shop (replaces the Wildhorse Store).
7/1	176	Wildhorse Saloon has closed and has been replaced by Motion, a dance club offering a mix of music ranging from Top 40 to Alternative.
7/1	177	Wildhorse Saloon has closed. It's replacement, Motion, does not offer food. There are no country bands at Wildhorse Saloon, as it has closed.
7/1	179	Pleasure Island Map - Wildhorse Saloon is now "Motion."
7/1	197	Pasta Piazza Ristorante has closed. No news as to re-opening or a new restaurant.
7/1	205	Drinkwallah, Mr. Kamal's Burger Grill, and Dino Diner have closed. There is no news as to re-openings or replacement snack carts.
7/1	207	Wildhorse Saloon has closed. "Motion," the new club that stands in its place, does not serve food.
7/1	210	Boma—Flavors of Africa is now open. Average price: $28. Jennifer's Rating: 7, Dave's Rating: 8. Priority seats strongly recommended. Savor the many flavors of Africa at a fabulous buffet. A dazzling array of unusual soups, stews, salads and wood-grilled meats tempt both timid and adventuresome diners. The wood-burning grill and exhibit kitchen adds extra flavor to the marketplace décor. Guests dine under thatched roofs.

7/1	210	Jiko—The Cooking Place is now open. Average price $45. Jennifer's Rating: 9, Dave's Rating: 9. Priority seats strongly suggested. African flavorings meet Californian, French and Asian influences with grace and style at Jiko, which joins California Grill, Citricos, Flying Fish and Artist Point on our list of favorite restaurants in the "World." Savory appetizers come from wood-burning ovens, and entrees range from heavenly banana-leaf-steamed sea bass to a juicy, roasted whole papaya stuffed with ground beef and an incredible beef tenderloin served (surprisingly) atop macaroni and cheese. Nearly every item has a taste-buds-opening "twist," so enjoy the adventure! For dessert you must try the cardamom-flavored chocolate candies, but avoid the strawberry sundowner. Trust your server with recommendations from the phenomenal South African wine cellar.
7/1	219	Artist Point no longer hosts a character meal. 1900 Park Fare's character dinner now features Pooh and friends (Villains have been defeated).
7/1	231	Epcot DiveQuest allows guests 15 and older (not 16) and all guests must bring a swimsuit. You can purchase a videotape of the dive for a fee. Proceeds from the program are earmarked for marine conservation programs through Disney Wildlife Conservation fund.
7/1	242	The sixth annual ABC Super Soap Weekend is November 3 & 4, 2001.
7/1	268	We now offer a PassPorter PassHolder Pouch, perfect for traveling light. See our online store for the details.
