

PassPorter PassAlongs

Have you noticed curious glances when you crack open your PassPorter? Do you know someone going to Walt Disney World who always seems to have “just one more question?” Envious people and Disney novices may ask you about your PassPorter and wonder how to get one. Wonder no more! These little “PassAlongs,” requested by our readers, are yours to pass along to friends, family members... even complete strangers. The front side, which you may enjoy reading yourself, bears fun quotes from readers. The back lists the “PassPorter Pledge” and ordering details.

Disney Detector

“At airport security, I set my PassPorter in the basket and went through the metal detector. The security guard picked up my PassPorter and asked, ‘What kind of a book is this?’ It turned out he was going to Walt Disney World soon and thought PassPorter would be a big help!”

– Rachel Nacion

King of the Castle

“My reluctant husband, who doesn’t love Disney as I do, actually took PassPorter away from me and read it. Not only that, he asked about making priority seating arrangements at a few of the restaurants. (Ok, who is this man and what did he do with my husband?)”

– Robin Krening-Capra

To Go or Not To Go

“One day at the parks, a woman asked me the direction of the nearest restroom. Naturally, I pulled out my PassPorter to look it up on the park map. She became so interested in PassPorter she actually forgot her original question and her urgent need to use the facilities.”

– Don Kelly

Dog-Gone Lucky

“PassPorter just saved our vacation! After reading PassPorter, we realized that Disney had us down for a campsite that doesn’t allow dogs, and we’re bringing one! Thanks to PassPorter, we were able to call ahead and correct this, and get a discount along the way!”

– Chris and Dawn Ray

Safely Stored

“My husband thinks PassPorter is the best Disney guidebook yet, because now he doesn’t hear or see me desperately searching for misplaced (or should I say ‘safely stored’) items!”

– Debbie Wright

Talk of the “World”

“Wherever we went in the parks, resorts, and restaurants, cast members asked us about our PassPorter! Hands down they all thought this was the best guidebook they had seen!”

– The Ernests
(Joanne, Tim, David, & Andrew)

Using PassPorter PassAlongs

If you enjoy the PassAlong stories on the reverse side too much to “pass along,” feel free to make a photocopy of these two pages. You may even want to pre-cut the PassAlongs and place them in a PassPocket! If you need more PassAlongs, you can get new pages (with new stories) at <http://www.passporter.com/wdw/passalongs.htm>. Oh, and before you hand out a PassAlong, we recommend you write your personal information under the front cover flap—just in case someone can’t wait to get their own copy of PassPorter!

PassPorter readers, including the person who gave you this PassAlong, are special people who appreciate the magic of Disney! In accepting this you agree to the PassPorter Pledge. Raise your right hand and say, “I thank you for this PassAlong, and now I pledge to find a safe place to put it.” It’s traditional to offer the giver a big hug or send a postcard from Disney.
